

THE LAST YEARS OF MOOLA BULLA, 1949–1955

On 7 December 2005, Professor Geoffrey Bolton, an eminent historian from Murdoch University, spoke to the Kimberley Society about the years that preceded Moola Bulla's transition from a cattle station run for and by Aboriginal people to one run by private enterprise. At present, no summary is available for his talk.

Postcript

Moola Bulla material is available in the summary dated April 2003